

Interested in learning

Are you comfortable with the basics of your computer, and the Internet but you want to want to know more? If so this class may be for you

We'll teach you how to

- Connect your computer to the Internet
- Set up a home network
- Discuss wired and wireless routers
- Network Security precautions
- Discuss how the Internet works
- Provide some simple network diagnostics

And a lot more.

Duration – Two 2-hour sessions over a 2-week period

Instructor - Bob Brubaker

PREREQUISITE: Bob's Computer Class (or long time Window's user)

Feel Free to repeat as often as necessary

If you are interested, sign-up on the sheet below.